In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, please join us for our October luncheon where our speaker will be Lesa Osborn, Breast Cancer Survivor and Local Author.

Lesla Osborn, author of 365 Daze, has been sharing her story for the last four years from the perspective of a single, working mother diagnosed with an aggressive form of breast cancer. The aptly named book reflects one chaotic, roller-coaster year of her life. 365 Daze evolves with unexpected twists and turns with an ending that may surprise you. With candor and self-deprecating humor, Lesa gives a personal behind-the-scenes view of the harsh reality that a cancer diagnosis had on her job, family and personal life.

Overwhelmed with work, chemotherapy, financial responsibilities, medical mistakes and an unexpected pregnancy, Lesa conveys a message that's relatable to anyone who's ever felt overwhelmed.

Lesla's 2012 book signing at Barnes and Noble was enormously successful and she continues to entertain groups with her humorous perspective.

Before this, Lesa attended the University of Georgia and worked as a Flight attendant. At the time of her cancer diagnosis she was employed by a national real estate publishing company. Today Lesa resides in Suwanee, Georgia.

Seating is limited so reserve your spot early.
